

MDay

Maryland Day Celebration
2026

*Annapolis &
Anne Arundel County*

March 19 – 25, 2026

A week-long invitation
to explore the history,
culture, and natural resources of the Chesapeake region.

Why Maryland Day Matters

Maryland Day commemorates March 25, 1634, when the first European settlers landed in Maryland. Recognized as a state holiday in 1916, it honors the state's origins while inviting new generations to explore its history.

Today, the celebration supports heritage tourism and connects residents and visitors to the historic sites, museums, parks, and cultural destinations that define the region.

Why Locals & Visitors will Love it
